Harrison Bergeron

Group Activity

Your "handicap" is ____ (see below).

INSTRUCTIONS:

- In your group, each person must adopt the "handicap" assigned to him or her.
- With each member handicapped, your group must work together to answer the following questions (on a separate sheet of paper).
- Turn in one copy of the responses to your "Handicapper General" (Mr. Smith).

GROUP QUESTIONS:

- Do you think that impediments push us to greater heights? Why or why not?
- Do you think our society is similar or different from the ideas that Vonnegut presents? Why or why not?
- Hazel says about the bungling announcer, "He tried. That's the big thing." Do you think that people should be rewarded for trying rather than accomplishing things? Why or why not?
- Is competition good, bad, or a little of both? Why?
- Imagine you are the Handicapper General. How would you hinder the talents of the following individuals?
  - Michael Jordan
  - Albert Einstein
  - Pablo Picasso
  - Martha Stewart
- Who do you think has it worse: Hazel or George? Why?

HANDICAPS:

- You have beautiful handwriting, but are only allowed to write with your non-dominant hand.
- You are terrible at spelling and cannot spell any word correctly.
- You have a beautiful voice, so you are not allowed to speak above a whisper.
- You are nearly blind, so you have to squint constantly to see anything.
- You have trouble sitting for very long and must stand every five minutes.
- You have a simple vocabulary like that of a kindergartner -- you only speak in monosyllabic words (words with one syllable).
- You must lie on the floor when you have to think hard about anything.
- You are physically perfect and therefore have to wear a paper bag over your head.
- You have to slow things to help you understand them.
- You have to say "I Love English" every 2 minutes (Tourette's Syndrome).

They were the same in every way... " It's the year 2081. You can download the card by clicking the button above. But what happens later will challenge the status quo and inspire its peers on the hidden potential within its individuality. He was born in Indianapolis, then setting up for many of his novels. His experiences as an advanced scout in the battle of swelling during World War II, and in particular his testimony of the bombing of Dresden, Germany, while a prisoner of war, would have informed much of his work. They were not equal only before God and the law. General Handicapper and a team of agents and "The year was 2081 and everyone was finally equal. "The year was 2081 and everyone was finally equal. Also, a 404 not found The error was found while trying to use an Error document to manage the request. The novelist is best known for works that merge satire, black comedy and science fiction, such as "Slaughterhouse-Five" (1969), "Cat's Cradle" (1963) and "Breakfast of Champions" (1973). Because of Amendments 211, 212 and 213 to the Constitution, every American is completely equal, which means that no one is stupider, uglier, weaker or slower than anyone else.
